Dedication

We, the class of 1975, would like to thank Mr. Martin for all his years of hard work in running our schools. We are thankful for his help and encouragement of our new and somewhat extraordinary programs, and in maintaining our high educational standards.

Acknowledgements

Our school has done more and more in the way of activities every year: our school is unique in the way we do them. Without the help of the community we wouldn't be able to do the things we do now. We, the Senior class, would like to bring out our thanks and gratitude by acknowledgeing the fine efforts of the following people:

Mr. Wallace Martin and the School Board for their support of the school and its many activities.

To the architect, Mr. Bilyard, and all the construction workers who helped design and build our new school.

Our bus drivers: Mr. Severance, Mr. Hubbard, Mrs. Harvey, Mr. Downs, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Raymond.

The Hot Lunch Ladies: Mrs. Kinsley, Mrs. Darrah, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Smith, and Miss Marsh.

Mrs. Hodgkins and Mr. Hubbard for keeping all the buildings under control while we were in the process of moving and settling.

To all the people who helped with the Phys. Ed. Program and sports: Mr. Gage, Killington Ski Area, The Bridges, Rutland Indoor Tennis Courts, and The Valley Bowl.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick for all her generous contributions.

To our special instructors, regular and volunteers: Mr. Smith all the art instructors, librarians, music instructors, and sex education staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Patch for their gracious help in many of the group pictures and portraits they contributed to the yearbook, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis and Mr. Robert Leister for their technical advice and encouragement.

These are just a few of the people who keep our school going by generously offering their services. Our parents and townspeople, chauffering, sponsoring, chaperoning, and tolerating. The student body would like to thank everyone.

Paul Francis Delorm 1951-1975

We would not wish to close the yearbook without naming two of our former schoolmates, whom we remember with love and sorrow.

They have
Awakened from the dream of life-Outsoared the shadow of our night.
Death is a low mist which cannot blot
The brightness it may veil.

-Shelley

Class History

The Freshman class began the year with 29 members. Mike Lary was our president. Homeroom teachers were Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Hubbard; Mr. Pollock was principal, and Nancy Parrish, secretary. The sophomores gave us our Freshman Reception. Remember when Max Brown and Barry Sherman had to chew string licorice off Sue Damone and Janine McIntyre? And the time when Randy Bettis was teamed up to carry Nancy Sargeant in a relay race, and dropped her?

Our Sophomore year started off with 27 members, president was Cheryl Wood, and Homeroom teachers were Mrs. Martin and Mrs. House. Nancy Parrish finished her last year as secretary. Our class changed the tradition of Freshman Reception. We just had a dance honoring the Freshmen. This was the year we received our class rings. This was also the year our class raked the park; only a low percentage of the class showed up, but that few that did, we thank them.

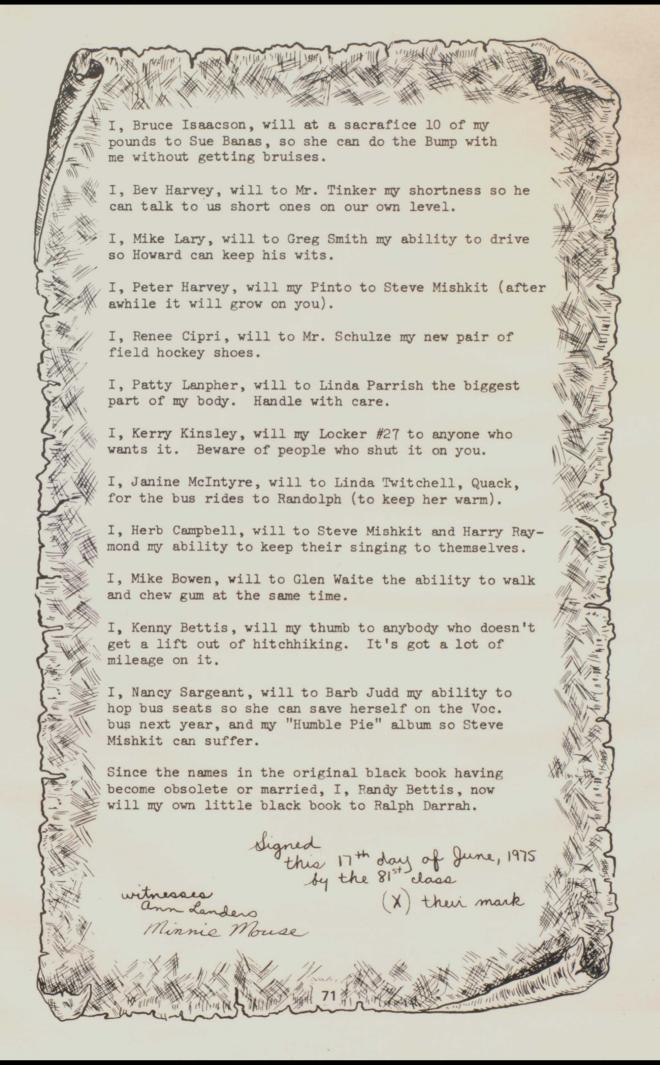

Our Junior year started off with 27 members. Mr. Schulze was Homeroom teacher. Java Hubbard was the new school secretary. Our class president was Sue Damone, and after she left at midyears, Patty Lampher took over. This was a smooth year until June, when we did the prom. Our theme was "Evening in Paris." Despite the few class members who showed up to work (and with the desperately needed help of underclassmen and seniors, along with Mr. Tinker and Mr. Pollock) we had one of the best decorated and nicest proms ever. Martin Lary and Melody Simpson were crowned King and Queen by Mr. and Mrs. Ide Sargeant.

Our Senior year we started with 25 members and a new principal, Mr. Hunt. Our president was Debbie Johnson. Remember when all the seniors crowded and hung from the beams, trying to get their turn at ringing the bell in the bell tower, when we really moved to the new building? UNDERCLASSMEN: Don't leave the yearbook to the last minute, as we did. Remember trying to get 22 pages done before a deadline which was two days away? Now we are looking forward to graduation.

We, the Seniors

We, the members of the Class of '75, the good year, being as sound in mind as could be expected after six years of education at Rochester High School, here in one last try to benefit our beloved school, do take our leave and in this last will and testament do leave our remaining possessions:

- I, Dennis Rhoades, will all my girls to Brian Sherman so he won't be lonesome at the Rutland Fair.
- I, Roger Comes, will to the faculty of RHS my sense of humor you'll need it in the future. Ha, ha.
- I, Stuart Brown, will my ability to get caught to Andy Darrah.
- I, Brenda McIntyre, will to Glenna Kennedy, my younger brother, Marty.
- I, Barry Sherman, will to Willy Martin my hair and earring so he won't be a redneck anymore.
- I, Debbie Johnson, will to Milly Lary my position under the basket in basketball to get all "black 'n blue."
- I, Janice Brown, will to Barb McIntyre my apple tree. Give the blossoms to who ever tickles your fancy.
- I, Anita Lubold, will Melissa Sherman my Bohemian dart set, hoping she'll have something interesting for the National Tiger next month.
- I, Cheryl Wood, will my talent of being late for school to Sue Banas so she can sleep later in the morning.
- I, Harriet Scheu, will to Karen Lubold enough patience to put up with "Big R" for as long as she needs it.
- I, Ross Laffan, will Miss Piche my Guy Lafluer dart board.
- I, Max Brown, will Brian Sherman my wiskers so he will look like a man.

"Well you see ... "

"Don't look now but!"

"Not this again."

"Did you hear the one about...."

'10 to 0, what are we going to do?"

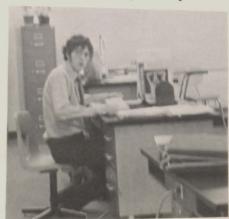

"Where did the ball go?"

"What did you say?"

"See you at 3:20."

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT HOME?

That's a question a good many of you graduates will be asking as you move away from the Rochester area for college, job training, or careers. You'll be surprised at how hard it is to keep track UNLESS you subscribe to the hometown paper. Take it with you. It's a friend.
