Many thanks to these advertisers for their help. We wish them much success in the year 1982-83, and encourage our readers to support them.

DEDICATION

The Senior class of 1982 dedicates this yearbook to Mr. Hubert Lary in an attempt to show our appreciation and gratitude for his years of support, dedication and understanding.

As our class advisor from 1975-1981, he provided us with guidance and direction when we needed it, reprimands when we deserved it, knowledge in many areas, and even more important, confidence in ourselves as individuals.

He has been a fine teacher and a wonderful friend. We wish him the best of everything and although he is no longer part of Rochester High School, he will always be a part of us.

THANK YOU

We the students and faculty of Rochester High School are greatly indebted to . . .

Mrs. Kirkpatrick for her generosity and continued support.

Joyce Severy and Stanley and Florence Hubbard for monetary contributions to the yearbook.

Ro Hubbard, Mary Davis, Sue Flewelling, Alan Goldberg, and T. J. Simpson for sharing pictures.

Sandi Bonn for special art work and pictures.

Fran Grembowicz and Bill Blair for donating innumerable hours to organize and to run the Jr. High extra-curricular sports program.

Royce Gage for faithfully running the score clock at every basketball game.

Jerry West and Java Hubbard, who are always willing to answer never-ending questions, and offer invaluable advice.

All those who helped us by placing advertisements in our 1982 yearbook.

SPORTS

50FTBALL

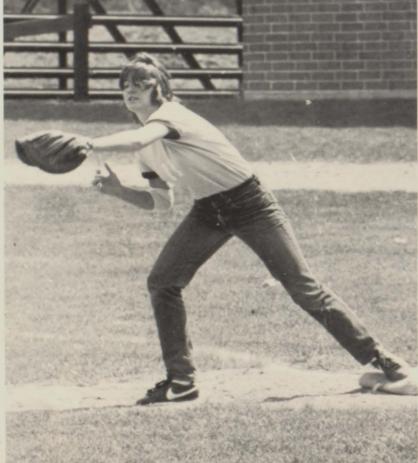

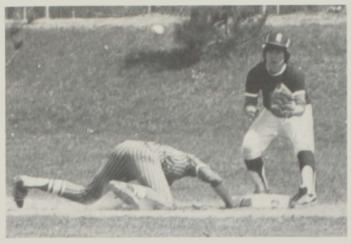

After replacing four starters, the season got off to a mediocre start. What was a frustrating season came to a very satisfying conclusion by beating Arlington at Mill River in the playoffs and then losing to the state runner-up, South Royalton 5-4 in nine innings. With only one departing senior, we can look forward to an excellent season in 1982.

Players: Julie Harvey, Linda Manning, Melody Moulton, Kim Keown, Roxanne Curtis, JoAnne Allyn, Lisa Andrews, Wendy Walker, Kelly White, Connie Shepard, Hope Norton, Vicki Billings, Lynda Bisson, Mary Judd. Coach: Richard Schulze.

Another one bites the dust!

With 9 wins - 7 losses, the baseball team enjoyed a successful year highlighted by wins over the state champions and a quarter final playoff victory. With the loss of only one senior from the squad, the Rockets anticipate continued success in the forthcoming season.

SOCCER

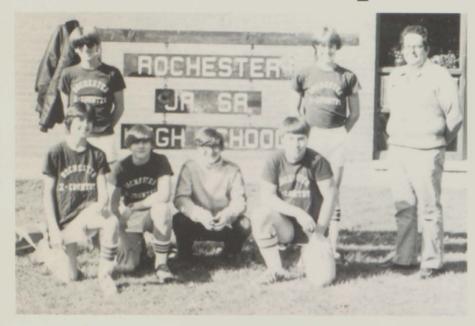

This year was like a roller coaster ride, with a dip of five straight losses and an ending that included 6 wins and a trip to the class 'S' semi-finals. The talented finish of this team will be an inspiration for future seasons.

X-COUNTRY

The Rochester Cross-Country team enjoyed a successful building season. The team consisted of three freshmen, one sophomore with experience, a new eighth grader, and a first year junior. It is a young and explosive team with a lot of potential for the near future.

Half of the team were 8th graders and most everyone will be back to play J.V. again next year. With these players it looks like a bright future for Rochester Girls Basketball.

ROCHESTER'S BICENTENNIAL

Rochester, Vermont celebrated its 200th birthday on July 25th and 26th, 1981. A crowd of 1500 was on hand Saturday afternoon to enjoy the parade which was organized by Ann Bashaw and Diane White. Many events followed including a police dog demonstration and a horseshoe competition. A street dance wrapped up the evening. On Sunday, the Bicentennial flag, made by Joanne Goding, was raised prior to the Ecumenical church service. Music and merriment followed in the afternoon, during which a chicken Bar-B-Que was held. A splendid fireworks display at the athletic field brought a close to the birthday festivities.

HAPPY 200TH!

SPIRIT WEEK

During the week of December 14th, the Rochester High School Student Council sponsored a plan to raise school spirit. For this one week, students dressed up according to a bizarre schedule:

Mon. - blue and white

Tues. — backwards and inside-out

Wed. — hats and ties

Thurs. — past or future

Fri. — original dress-up

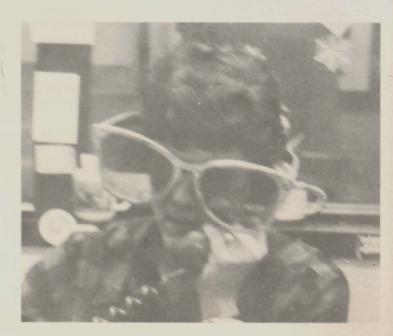

Classes were judged by a group of students and faculty according to originality and participation each day. At the end of the week, although the scores were close, the 1982 Seniors took the prize.

ONE-ACT PLAYS

"PASSIONS OF AMOROSO"

This play was directed by Paulette Staats. It is a comedy of romance and manners dating from the 15th century dramatic literature of Italy. The cast includes Xavier Soler as Amoroso, Gunnar Hubbard as Harlequin, Lars Nordin as Scapin, Shannon McDermott as Columbine, and Erika Bokel as Amorella. The 28 minute play revolves around Amoroso, who returns from war to find his loved one, Amorella, engaged to his best friend, Scapin.

"TRIFLES"

In this play, two women are left alone in the kitchen of another woman accused of murdering her husband. Directed by Ms. Gephart, this subtle and intense psychological drama had the audience on the edge of their seats. Mark Belisle plays Mr. Peters, William Walker plays Mr. Hale, David Bokel is Mr. Henderson. Women's roles were taken by Wendy Walker, as Mrs. Peters, and Maggie Carden as Mrs. Hale.

"THE LAST OF SHERLOCK HOLMES"

Mr. Goupee directed this play by Tim Kelly. This farce-comedy provided an inside look at the real relationship between Sherlock Holmes, Dr. Watson, and the infamous Dr. Moriarty who is captured, lost, and then revealed. David Curtis plays Holmes; Kristi McGloughlin is Mrs. Hudson, his housekeeper; Kim Keown is Lady Dimtwiddle-Grey, a client; Bob McDermott plays Dr. Watson; and Tammy Billings takes the part of a mystery woman, another client.

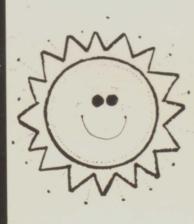

SENIOR PICNIC

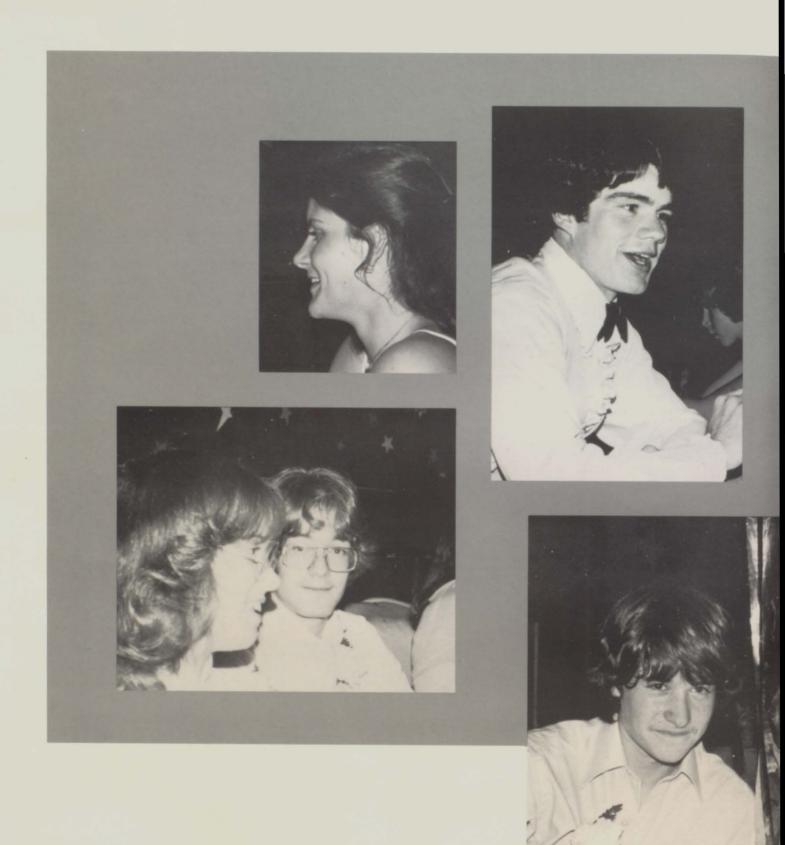

The Senior Picnic was held on Monday, June 8 at Silver Lake in Barnard. Mr. Goupee cooked hot dogs and hamburgers with help from Stuart Severy, and everyone ate salads brought by some members of the Senior class. The weather was warm enough to go swimming; some by choice and others reluctantly.

their experiences at RHS. Rev. Doran gave the Invocation, which marked the opening of the ceremonies.

Ms. Martha Gephart announced the awards and prizes, after which Mrs. Florence Hubafter which Mrs. Florence Hubbard, retiring business teacher, gave the charge to the class of 1981. Her speech was humorous and thought-provoking. Mr. James Bonnell and Mr. Norman Pratt presented diplomas to the graduates. CLOSE- UP

The 1981 Close-Up trip took 216 students and adult chaperones, including Ms. Petrillose and Sandi Bonn from Rochester High School, to Washington, D.C. to participate in an intensive examination of the federal government in action.

Each day of the one-week program consisted in an average of three seminars about a current issue in government. At the end of the day, workshops were held to answer any questions that may have arisen during the day, to brief the participants on the next day's events, and generally to settle any problems that a student couldn't solve. There was always some time in the day to do some sight-seeing and socializing.

Some of the extra special events of the week were: two extensive tours of Washington, D.C., dinner at a fancy restaurant followed by a Broadway show, a pizza party, and all day Friday for private touring followed by a dance until 1 A.M. Also, there was a visit to Georgetown where the group encountered the hit punk shop, Commander Salamander.

All in all, it was an educational trip worth remembering. Hopefully, in the future, there will be more Rochester participants, as it is definitely worth the time and expense.
