KING and QUEEN: Todd Harvey and Kristy White

Despite the fact that in 1986, last year's junior class only had thirteen members, planning for the prom went quite smoothly. The class selected the theme "These Dreams" in a meeting early in the year. President Kelly Wilber took charge, and by the time June rolled around, most of the details were taken care of.
With the wire strung the day before, the juniors (with help from some sophomores) had the gym ready in a day and a half of decorating. A canopy of metallic blue and silver streamers was - by necessity - left open on one end, creating a stage for the king and queen opposite the band's platform. Shooting stars, clouds, a bridge, and myriad silver and blue balloons completed the dream-like effect.
On prom night the Rick Davis Band was great, and both adults and kids danced the night away. All the girls looked lovely; the boys looked dashing. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of King Todd Harvey and Queen Kristy White. "These Dreams" was truly a beautiful, memorable prom.

Graduation

Stepping Out

Following in the footsteps of tradition, the Rochester graduation ceremony was held on the Park. It was warm and sunny as the 24 Seniors and 3 Juniors were led by class marshalls Kelly Wilber and Raymond Shepard. Salutatorian, Carol Phelps and Valedictorian, Jorene Bokel presented speeches of thanks and farewell. After Mr. Goupee and Mr. Moltz, class advisors, presented the awards, Mr. Moltz gave the charge to the class. Diplomas were presented by Principal Jerry West and School Board Chairman Steve Post. In conclusion the Seniors sang "That's What Friends are For." Setting free a cluster of balloons symbolized the end of an important phase of their life and the beginning of another.

BROADWAY Here We Come

Play Ball

The 1986 Baseball team showed flashes of brilliance during the season, but finished with a $3-10$ record. The high point of the season was sweeping a doubleheader against Stowe

Todd Harvey, who pitched well and hit 400 , was named to the first team C.V.L. South All-Stars. Raymond Shepard was a Second Team All-Star selection

Some highlights of the season were Jason Schroer's three run bunt at West Rutland, "Beef's" power hitting, Gregg's "rubber arm" pitching, and Chellis throwing out three baserunners in one game. The Wilmington game and our verbal signals against Woodstock were also experiences that will not soon be forgotten.

Finally, Chellis would like to publicly congratulate Keith Allyn on his awesome pitching performance against Woodstock.

With six starting seniors, a 5-7-1 overall record might not look very impressive, but playing some strong teams outside of our league and losing three one-run games can be considered a successful season. Hitting was our weak area while our defense and pitching were very strong. We tied with Chelsea for the CVL championship with a 5-21 league record. We will be losing a lot of experienced players, by unfortunatly we are losing some super young ladies. We will miss them dearly. Kelly Wilber, Rhonda Goodwin, Renée Bissonnette, and Joanne Carleton will be coming back. If the young people come through and these four returning people perform to their potential our season next year will be as good or better than last year.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 1986 Field Hockey team completed the season with a 2-10-2 record. The Rockets, fielding a young squad this season, showed a great deal of improvement throughout the season. Rochester, playing against tough competitors, used teamwork and determination to hold their own. Rochester ended the season on a strong note by tying Whitcomb 1-1 and defeating West Rutland 4-1.
The young squad placed four players on the C.V.L. All-Star-Team. Senior Kelly Wilber, Sophomore Kim Mears, Freshman Robyn Compo, and eighth grader Charity Laffan made Honorable Mention.
The Rockets are looking forward to next season when 11 players will be returning. The team will miss Seniors Candy Butterfield, Kelly Wilber, and Rhonda Goodwin.

Hey look, guys

Otay Alphalpha, I put de froggie in ma pants.

JUST ANOTHER KICK IN THE GRASS

Even though it was a pretty disappointing season, we showed signs of life near the end of the season. We lost our last four league games by one goal, and tied a strong Green Mountain Valley team.
Injuries to Matt Meagher and Marc Sherman hurt immeasurably. Keith Westcott's move to Buffalo didn't exactly help either, nor did Gregg Spiro's move to Woodstock. As a result, we played numerous inexperienced and physically overmatched players, with predictable results.

Some of this year's outstanding players were Chellis Lanpher, with ten goals in twelve games; Jason Schroer, with four goals; Chet Baxter, with 346 saves in goal; and Ron Carleton, with his aggressive play at fullback. Chellis made the first team CVL All-Stars, and Jason and Ron were elected to the second team.

Next year we will have to replace most of our fullbacks and halfbacks. The seniors especially will be missed. Fortunately, players such as Phil Kimball, Janet Jesso, and Travis Moulton improved a great deal this year and should be more productive in 1987. Hopefully, Matt and Marc will return from injuries and give the team an additional boost. The front line already returns intact.
Ray, Pat, Ron, and Shawn all deserve congratulations for several years of solid soccer. Their hustle gave our team a trademark for playing hard. Leroy Greene also played fine soccer as a first-year senior player, and his spirit will be missed, as well as his narration.
Pat Whitley and Ray Shepard were named to the Vermont Academic All-Star Soccer Team by "Vermont High Sport" Magazine. They were chosen for both their academic and soccer performances during the fall. Pat was selected to the Second Team, and Ray made Honorable Mention.

Kneeling: Patrick Whitley, Raymond Shepard (captain), Ron Carleton (captain). Standing: Coach George Moltz, Jeff Baker, Ryan Weber, Marc Sherman, Chet Baxter, Janet Jesso, Jason Schroer, Shawn Linn, Chellis Lanpher, Phil Kimball, Joe Whitley, Leroy Greene, John "Bubba" Baker, Andy Deering. Missing: Doug Duval, Travis Moulton, Sarah Deering (manager). Wounded: Matt Meagher

Rochester's five young cross-country runners had a good season. Chelsea was the only team in our league which they didn't beat. Four came in the top ten at the C.V.L. championship race and were named to the All Star Team: David Sird (4th), Jim Whitley (7th), Pat Gendron (8th), and Jon Desautels (9th). Buddy Comes came in 13th. Rochester took second place.

Kneeling: Jonathan Desautels. Standing: Jim Whitley, David Sird, Buddy Comes, Coach Tony Goupee. Top: Pat Gendron

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1986-87 record for the Rochester Boys Varsity Basketball team, at this writing, stands at four wins and eleven losses with two games remaining to be played.
The team has not qualified for the state tournament for the second year in a row, but there was tremendous growth on the part of individual players which should lead to a very productive year in 1987-88.

Senior Captain Ray Shepard played consistently well all season, directing the offense from the point guard position and playing solid defense, often assigned to the opponent's top player.

Juniors Jason Schroer, Buddy Comes, and David Sird gained valuable experience this season and should form the nucleus of next year's team. Jason had a 32 point night against Cabot.

Sophomores Chellis Lanpher (Junior Captain) and Pat Gendron also played well, often being game leaders.

Super sub Leroy Greene, a senior, will be sadly missed next season. He is our representative to the "All Madden Team."

Rochester completed their season with a 6-13 record. The Rockets were rebuilding with one returning varsity player, Kelly Wilber. The success of the rebuilding year came as a result of the new varsity players having played together for two years at the I.V. level. Rhonda Goodwin, Candy Butterfield, Janet Jesso, Beth Eaton, and Renée Bissonnette anchored the J.V. program for two years with the addition of Robyn Compo and Kim Mears for one season.

The Rockets, although inexperienced at the varsity level, handled themselves with confidence and teamwork on the court. Rochester easily handled Cabot, West Rutland, and Wilmington (at home) and pulled an upset overtime win over Whitcomb. The Rockets pressured their opponents even in defeat, losing 7 games by less than 7 points.

Rochester will miss seniors Kelly Wilber, Rhonda Goodwin, and Candy Butterfield next season. However, the Rockets will be returning to the court with 4 letter winners and 5 experienced varsity players. Junior Beth Eaton was selected first team CVL All-Star Team.

Raymond Shepard graduates from UVM business school and starts a business with the song "Love For Sale" as the motto.
Duwayne Smith becomes football's next major appliance weighing in at 345 lbs .
Patrick Whitley becomes a CPA, and does the accounting for "Cheri".
Kelly Wilber becomes Doctor Ruth's apprentice and writes a book called the "Fabulous Switch".
Branden Wing gets his Heavy Metal airplane shot out of the air by the Russian Ballet.

IN MEMORY

This page is dedicated to these three special people who were members of our school and community.

Steve Bloch, who served on the School Board, who dedicated countless hours to the Valley Rescue Squad, and who gave to our town unselfishly.

Kyle Lizotte, for his outstanding show of sportmanship and participation in school and community activities.

Rosa LaRock, whom we lost tragically, and whom we remember for her fondness of singing and her love of children and friends.
