When we were frosh.

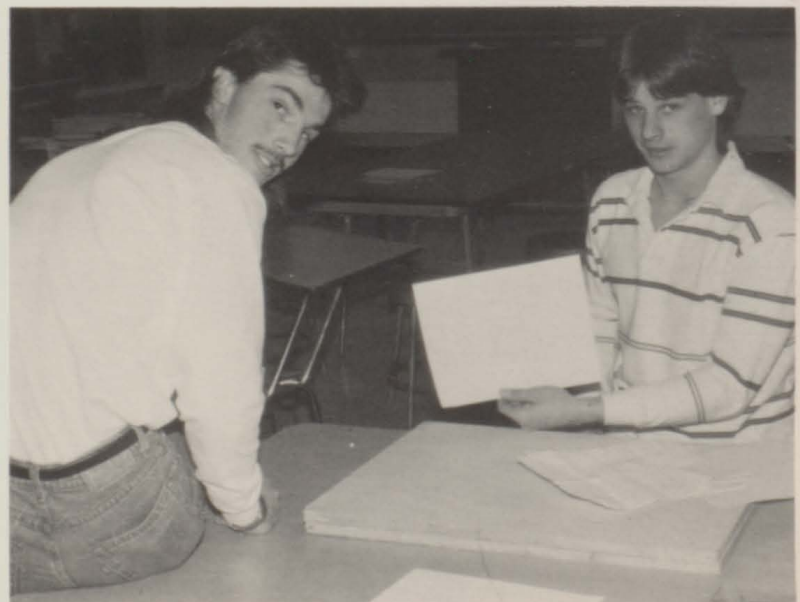

Creating what in the kitchen?

After 25 years of teaching Math, Mrs. Martin is retiring from her position at Rochester High School. She has been an excellent teacher through the years and we will all miss her concern and help. As one student said, "She's the best math teacher we've ever had."

IN MEMORY

We place in memoriam these friends who, through the years, have enriched the life of the Rochester Schools.

KATHARINE PURDEE KIRKPATRICK

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was a benefactress for many years. She assisted our graduates who were going on to further education. She gave largely toward equipping our athletic program, even to the gift of a sailboat which added much to our Wednesday afternoon Phys. Ed. programs. Her contribution to the building of our new high school was of major importance. A plaque in the Resource Center attests to our gratitude. On her 100th birthday, the entire Junior-Senior High School went up to her home to serenade her.

PAULINE MANNING

Mrs. Manning taught in many capacities in the Rochester Schools; substituted when she was not teaching full-time, developed the beginnings of our school library, and was always a loyal supporter of our activities.

IDE SARGEANT

Mr. Sargeant was an inspiration to Rochester students. He was ombudsman, guidance director, science teacher. He was much loved, respected, and admired. The Rochester Schools have been a better place because of his influence.

LOIS MILLS

Lois Mills is remembered by many as a teacher who believed in, and delighted in each child. Her enthusiasm for all of nature led many people into their own trails of discovery. As a school board member, she was deeply involved in building the new high school.

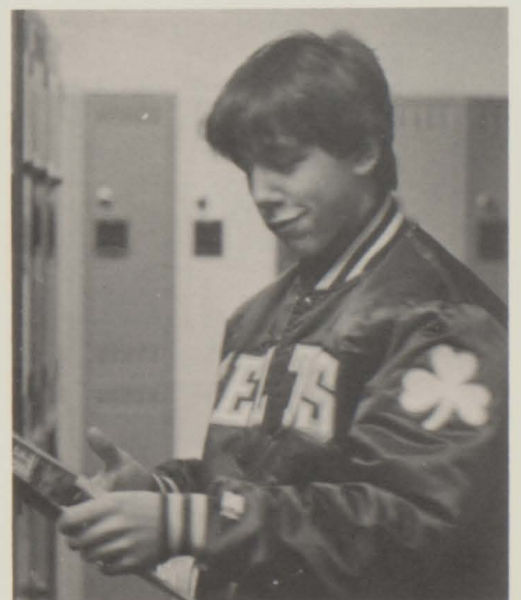

Waiting for the Egg Drop to begin.

This year's Student Council had a new election process. Sixteen students gave speeches explaining why they wanted to be part of the organization and how they could help. The entire student body voted for the eight most popular. Also each class voted for a representative to relay its ideas. The 88-89 S.C. has many goals including the return of special week, consistent discipline, the school forest, and better communications between the Rochester students and the teachers. Our thanks to the new Student Council for their efforts and their accomplishments.

KICKIN' OFF The Fall Season

The boys soccer team had an off season in 1988. It was a year of change including a new coach and some inexperienced players. On the brighter side there was a large number of boys out for the team. The five seniors will be greatly missed. Ryan Weber made C.V.L. all-stars and Marc Spring made honorable mention.

Field Hockey '88

Even though our record was 0-12-2 the season was extremely enjoyable and went by fast. We scored five goals and had two ties. By the way, eight of our sixteen games were played against teams who ended up in the state semi-finals and five of our games were against teams that were in the finals. I believe our season was a success. We will miss our four seniors Joanna, Sandy, Kim, and Juli. They did a good job for us. We have lots of experience returning next year and I look forward to working with this fine group of young ladies.

From the Coach . . .

When Ms. G. and I talked about who would take over the Field Hockey I was not considering myself as a possibility. I was busy with drivers ed. and I knew time would be hard to find. But then I sat down and looked at those students whom I thought would play. It was then that I decided to get back into coaching. After the season I can tell you, I made the correct decision.

Cross Country

The Rochester High School Boys' Cross-Country team was undefeated in the central Vermont League this season. Senior Pat Gendron also had an undefeated season, followed by sophomore, Jesse Cook, who placed second or third in all races. Both were named to the All-Star team. Pat took a sixth place ribbon in the State meet where the team placed fourth. Pat and Jon Desautels, usually our third place runner, will be missed next season.

BOYS VARSITY

Standing: Joel Schroer, Travis Moulton, Doug Duval, Andy Deering, Jeff Baker, Dan Gendron, Coach Zeus Lary. Kneeling: Pat Gendron, Ryan Weber.

The boys basketball team finished the season with a 5-15 record, a one game improvement over last year. A major improvement was seen in team play. The scoring was spread around and the team relied on no particular individual to carry the load night after night. The team will miss the two seniors, Ryan Weber and Pat Gendron next year.

Dan burns the competition.

Joel shoots for two.

Doug Duval goes up for the shot.

Travis takes it to the hoop, burns Mouse and scores two.

"Which way do I go now!?" Joel Schroer.

The girls basketball team proved to be a combination of promising talent, enthusiasm and inexperience. The squad was comprised of one senior, sophomores and freshmen. In spite of their unfamiliarity with the game of basketball they were exciting to watch because their enthusiasm was contagious. In observing their development one gained the confidence that the future of girls basketball at Rochester was in good hands.

Chellis, displaying textbook form, "Mows down" another one.

Nailed at the plate.

With only two seniors and barely enough girls to field a team, these ten young players worked together and were able to find spirit throughout the season. Their best games were played away at Bethel and at home against Twinfield in a doubleheader; all three were victories.

The most improved players were Melanie King and Bertha Morse. Cathy Wiedl, the most valuable player, Sarah Duval and Janet Jesso made CVL All-Stars. The team looked up to and found leadership in Janet Jesso.

Coach George Moltz stated in an interview that the 1988 team really improved and played consistent, competitive baseball. Even though he has coached teams with more talent, he feels that this was overall the best team in at least five years because of team work. For the first time in Rochester history, enough people came out for the team to form a J.V. Squad.

The closest games were played against South Royalton, Thetford, and Chelsea with close scores and evenly matched teams. The doubleheader split with Twinfield was also exciting and evenly matched.

The two most memorable moments of the season: when Chellis went 8 for 9 in the Twinfield doubleheader and in the last inning 2 out, 2 on, 3-2, Dan Gendron got a double to beat Twinfield 4-3.

The Varsity Hit Squad included Jason Schroer batting .481, Chellis .381, and Marc with the only season's homerun.

ONE ACT PLAYS April 1988

Boys' night out, Ryan, Jeff, Joe.

"DRIVE IN" Directed by Marty Gephart: Cast — Boy — Pat Gendron, Girl — Pinky Brazil, Barb — Tammi Schaefer, Laurie — Laurie Pitts, Rob — Jeff Baker, Jim — Ryan Weber, Chuck — Joe Whitley.

"DRIVE IN" is the story of seven teenagers at a drive in on a summer night: Pat on his first date with Pinky, an experienced girl; Laurie and Tammi, bemoaning a broken date, are in another car; and Ryan, Jeff and Joe are out cruising looking for fun.

"HIGH WINDOW" Directed by Mary Sue Crowley and Tom Kalish Cast — Emily Winthrop — Renée Bissnette, Stephen Graig — Jim Whitley, Judith Ware — Joanna Carleton, Walter Hodge — Matt Meagher, Linda Norton — Beth Eaton.

Walter Hodge used to be an independent, fun loving, man-about-town. Now he is timid, pale, and fearful. He jumps at every command given by his aunt Emily, who is paralyzed and confined to a wheelchair.

She taunts him cruelly about his weakness and about some terrible secret they seem to share. The shrewd and cunning old lady calls her lawyer and instructs him to commit Walter to a mental institution. She also orders him to begin legal proceedings against the insurance company which is holding up payment on her late husband's $100,000 life insurance policy. Walter's future looks bleak indeed, until Linda Norton, a clever newspaper-woman, takes special interest in the case, and helps to solve the case of the "HIGH WINDOW."

"MISTER VINCENT" Directed by Tony Goupee: Cast — Caroline Graham — Linsey Simpson, Henry Graham — Tom Stauckas, Cynthia Dalrymple — Juli Jesso, Susan Graham — Jennifer Simpson, Penelope (Penny) Graham — Janet Jesso, Mister Vincent — David Sird, Ted Matthews — Juan Gonzalez.

"Mister Vincent" is the story of a young girl, Penny, who admires the painter Vincent Van Gogh. One night she meets a super look-alike in an alley and brings him home. Unaware of their new "house guest," her father (Henry) goes into the kitchen, finds him eating, and accuses him of being a trespasser. Penny defends him and asks Mister Vincent if he would like to accompany her to the dance. He says yes, but doesn't show. That is the end of Mr. Vincent.

Juan picks up Juli and they depart for the dance.

Soul Brothers: Jason Schroer, Matt Meagher, Ryan Weber.

"Come on baby let's do the twist!" Blythe Goupee and Marc Spring.

GRADUATION '88

The Rochester Graduation took place on the Park, as it has many years before. The seventeen Graduates marched across the Park on June 18, 1988, being led by class marshalls Chet Baxter and Juli Jesso. Valedictorian Janet Jesso and Salutatorian Matt Meagher spoke of their memories at R.H.S. Following the presentation of awards by Mr. Zucca, Norm Pratt gave the charge to the class. Principal David Wood and School Board Member Helen Pinder delivered diplomas to the eager graduates. Rev. John Pinder then gave a benediction to conclude the ceremony. Finally, the graduates of 1988 threw their caps in the air in celebration of their accomplishments.

Pure and Natural...

Because NICOLE'S SORBET contains no milk or milk by-products, no salt, no fats, no cholesterol and only about one-third the calories of ice cream, it is ideal for the health-conscious and those on special diets. We use only the finest domestic and imported ingredients to bring you natural flavors of character and distinction:

- Lemon — the cool citrus classic, from Florida
- Lime — bold, lively intensity, also from Florida
- Strawberry — made from West German Alpine strawberries — simply the best
- Summer Cherry — from Yugoslavia, uniquely tart and flavorful
- Apricot — from Washington State, so delicate and refreshing
- Vermont Cider — the sweet country flavor of fresh, pure Vermont apple cider

All expertly blended and frozen at our facility in central Vermont.
