“Strange Days”
Rochester High School
Class of 2002

Remember When?

Dane didn't gel his hair.

We had over 20 kids in our class.

Justin got caught putting Mr. Schulze's cigar back in the box.

Pat had short hair and was obsessed with the Boston Red Sox.

Heidi stapled her finger and the Kindergarten had a loft.

We drove away our class advisors & we "stabbed" Michael Coad in the back.

Prom

Howard was in our class.

Senior Trip & Senior Skip Days

We went to the Great Escape during Physics Class.

Mrs. Miller was here for only one year-in 1st grade.

Shane was here.

Paul Norton broke his arm in the bathroom.

Kris wore glasses

Mr. Goupee cooked for us on Fall Hike Day

ADVICE TO UNDERCLASSMEN: Have fun in High School because it is the best time of your life. Finally, Watch out for Mike Bowen's Cows! Matt Richardson knows what I mean

WILL: I will to Mickaela Downs the ability to finally say the number 13 is her number. I will to my loving sister Nikita the ability to not take any @#$$ from anyone, and to be able to stand up for herself, and anything else she wants. I will Cito Murray number 13 in all sports (if he wants the number). I will Maria Murray the ability to KEEP QUIET when it comes to any of Mr. Goupee's classes.

Rachel

Name: Rachel Marie Magrath

Birthday: November 15, 1984

Favorite Sayings: "Oh my god" "really "whatever"

Honors: Honor roll, 1234

Hobbies/Intrests: I like to go for walks, I also like to travel to different places.

Fondest memories: Moving to Rochester and thinking to myself I couldn't believe the size of this school compared to other schools I've been to. Meeting a lot of nice people at this school, feeling welcome.

Future plans: Go to a community college first, then going to a regular college, and after that eventually owning my own business.

Favorite artist's: Too many to list.

Favorite movies: I like almost anything, I really like comedies, thrillers, suspense, and I like almost any old movie.

Advice to underclassmen: Make the most of your high school years, I know it seems like they will never end, but they really do fly by fast!!!

Quotes: "Enjoy you own life without comparing it to someone else."
"What's important in life is how we treat each other." "Enjoy yourself these are the good old days, you will miss them in the years to come."

Will: My will is different than other peole's wills, because my will is for everyone in this school. I, Rachel Magrath, will to each one of the students at Rochester to be happy. I also will that you graduate and follow your dreams.

Name: Jennifer Anne Slater

Date of Birth: June 17, 1984

Nicknames: Jenny is what everyone has called me for as long as I can remember, but my friend Hannah has some nicknames for me that are unique to her alone: jenster, jenerator, jen-jen the hen, and numerous other names that I can't remember.

Favorite Sayings: "I'm not that tall, you're just really short", "um....no", "I'm so confused!"

Activities: Varsity soccer 1,2; Varsity Basketball 1,2,3,4; student council 1,2; Winooski Valley music festival 2,3,4; Winooski Valley Jazz Choir 3,4; One-Acts, Numerous WRVP productions.

Honors: High honors 1,2,3,4; National Honor Society 2,3,4.

Leadership: Junior class president, senior Basketball captain.

Hobbies/Interests: Performance arts (acting and singing), Photography.

Fondest Memories: "Tuesday night!" (with Hannah), somersaults on the kitchen floor, cruisin' in the Volvo, the hatchback incident, getting "mugged" in Burlington, greasy food with Hannah and Jess, Hannah's flop in the nightgown, holding hands with Hannah, Dane's chubby hands, warren falls (Hannah falling down the bank), prom shopping, Jenny as a seagull, 8 times 2 at Roy's, studs, no times with Dane, EVER! (he he), Hannah and her "double-barrel shotgun", the "queen of klutz", shopping (anytime, anyplace), advice with my sister, taking pictures, jenny's farting bed, Hannah's socks at the mason's building, sophomore and junior proms, "Quick, before my sister comes!", the field, bonfires, HSWR, SOOTHAEN, baggy eyes, British Lit ("The Aftermath"), MREWR, SFLWR, the village pizza guy, shopping for prom decorations, making up dances with Hannah and Bree, "what are you looking at, dirty b@#$!" (Jess), watching endless hours of simpsons with Roy, my glider ride, playing in the snow at midnight, bowling in Randolph, many backstage moments during spring musicals (The goosing war), girls nights, poker nights with the guys, pat b's amazing acrobatics on the streets of hanover, underwear shopping ("granny panties"), Jess's fits of laughter, Krystle's "admirer" at Burger King, road trips with various people, Hannah's destiny to be a bimbo, and many more.

Future Plans: Go to college, get a couple of degrees, become a zoologist, and move to Australia. Maybe do some photography on the side.

Favorite artists: I'm really eclectic. I like a lot of the old classics like The Beatles and The Doors. I usually go by genres rather than individual artists. I listen to everything from classical to hip-hop to reggae, depending on my mood.

Favorite Books: She's Come Undone by Walley Lamb and Angela's Ashes by Frank McCourt.

Advice to underclassmen: Always strive to do and be your best, but don't let stress take over your life. If something goes wrong, whether in school or your personal life, don't obsess about it. Know when to laugh. Sometimes that's all you need.

Quotes:

"If you obey all the rules, you miss all the fun."

"Drama cannot exist without comedy and comedy cannot exist without drama"

-Whoopi Goldberg

"If thou rememb'rest not the slightest folly

That ever love did make thee run into

Thou hast not loved.

- As You Like It, William Shakespeare

Will: To Lana, I will my #15 jersey in Basketball. I will Maria Zucca the ability to be yourself and not let other people's opinions stifle your craziness. To Cesca, I will the ability to grow as a person and to overcome your occasional shyness. I know how outgoing and fun-loving you can really be! I will Jenna the ability to always stand up for what you believe in, no matter how trivial it may be. Finally, I will Hannah the ability to know your own limits. You can't do everything. Remember, the only person you have to prove yourself to is you.

Graduation 2002

June 15,
2002

Top to Bottom: Jenny Slater, Class Valedictorian; Ray Burke, Guest Speaker; Jenna Pelletier, Class Salutatorian; Josh Rhoades and Rachel Magrath.

The RHS Class of 2002 may have been small in number, but they were graduated with style and the support of their community, Saturday, June 15. Rain forced the ceremony to be held in the school auditorium, instead of on the Rochester Park, but the weather couldn't dampen the excitement and happiness of the occasion.

The graduates were "piped in" by bagpiper Norm Wilson and led down the aisle by class marshals Hannah Gephart and Zach LeClair to music played by the Rochester School Band, conducted by Carol Cronce.

Principal Ilene Levitt welcomed everyone, noting that it had been "a challenging year, beginning with the events of Sept. 11 and ending in this joyous occasion." She paid tribute to three long-time Rochester School teachers who are retiring (Marty Gephart, Jane Duval and John Roberts).

"Our class is small, but the individuals in it are strong and capable," declared class Salutatorian Jenna Pelletier. "Besides being talented, they are an enjoyable group to be a part of."

Jenny Slater's heartfelt Valedictory address was punctuated by a few tears as she said, "there are so many wonderful things about living in Rochester that a lot of people don't see." Citing graduation as an example, she said, "a lot of people here today probably aren't even related to anyone sitting in these 11 seats. Community support is just one example of why Rochester is so great."

Justice of the Peace Java Hubbard administered the Freeman's Oath to a number of the graduates and George Moltz and class advisor Tony Goupee announced the awards:

The class gift to the school was a $200 gift certificate for plants and shrubs for the school grounds.

"It's good to be back home," declared Vermont's "Roads Scholar," Ray Burke (RHS Class of 1958), recently retired from his post as the state's head highway dispatcher. "All along the highway of life, learn to read the signs and pay attention to them. You may end up in 'the fast lane' on the Interstate, but remember the important things you learned here in small town USA."

Recalling plans he made when he was told he had an eye disease and would go blind by age 40, Burke showed he hadn't allowed himself to be limited by what others considered a handicap. His sense of humor caused the audience to laugh often throughout his speech, but he also had some serious advice for the graduates.

"If you go into life's battles with an open mind and an open heart, you'll do well," Burke said. "Guide your lives by the truth. Learn to live with yourself and to control your temper. Be caring and thoughtful in how you deal with others and consider long and hard before you choose your mate and don't think you can change them."

The ceremony concluded with the presentation of diplomas by Principal Levitt and school board chairman Becky Donnet.

The 2001- 2002 Girls Varsity Basketball Team had a regular season record of 5-15. We will be losing two seniors this year, Jenny Slater and Jenna Pelletier. The highlight of the year was beating Twinfield in the last game of the season. We lost our first playoff game to #3

Chelsea which ended our season with a final record of 5-16. A lot of talent is brewing in the lower grades and there are hopes for the successful years to come.

Despite a 5-15 record, the Rochester Boys' Basketball team had a very successful year. Returning three starters and Dane Lary from last year's team, the boys started the season off 2-0, including the victory over Whitcomb in the annual Beanpot game. As the season progressed injuries started to plague the team. Senior Captain Josh Rhoades broke his thumb with two games left in the season and sophomore Cody Downs was out most of the season with two injuries. Despite the injuries, the team played aggressively with freshman Carl Burns and Jay Moltz filling in starting positions. Sophomore Shawn Settlers had a big year rebounding and he has improved his shot. Senior Captains Dane Lary and Rylan Lynam both had great seasons, including Dane Lary being selected to the honorable mention team in the CVL. Even though the team will be losing three starters, there are many young players coming up though. Freshman Aaron Trombley played some quality minutes this year and sophomore Andrew Stringer is expected to return next year. I look forward to next season.

Our ending record was 5-9, and I have to say I am truly impressed with their hard work and ability to learn new skills quickly. I had first year girls that couldn't catch the ball or dribble (or understand our English Basketball language, "What's a foul?") and one of them ended up being my starting Forward. One girl couldn't keep her hands to herself and fouled out by half time. However, by the last couple games she was able to play the full four quarters! Another girl smiled and laughed no matter what drill I made them do, and then there was a girl with the "hard eyes." I have enjoyed the season and hope all my girls return next year along with a few other.

JV Boys Basketball

Missing from picture: Jay Moltz, Aaron Trombley

It has been several years since there has been a JV Boys team at Rochester, and this year proved to be a year for building our program. Our team started with ten talented players. Unfortunately, because of injuries to some players at the Varsity level, several players had to be moved up to fill in. When the dust settled, our team consisted of two eighth grade players, Ben Kingsbury and Forrest Patterson, four ninth grade players, Ryan Campbell, Matt Champion, John Gaboury, and Brendon Thurston, one tenth grade player, Eric Fifield, and one eleventh grade player, John Sabau.

Our record wasn't outstanding and our young team faced many older and seasoned players throughout the season. Many teams had a deep bench including one JV squad that brought nineteen players to our gym. We lost two close games to Chelsea and a hard fought, last second loss to Sharon Academy by the score of 44 to 46. We redeemed ourselves in the last game of the season with a decisive win over Sharon 55 to 45. Matt had a season high 18 points, with 16 points from Forrest and 13 points from Ben in that win.

Highlights in our season were a stomping victory in a game of 21 over the Varsity boys. Also, Eric's 21 points as a JV player against South Royalton following by a much deserved victory dance down the court afterwards, and the singing solo's from Matt and Ryan for leaving uniforms behind at away games.

Basketball is a long season and the boys worked hard at every practice. With their continuing efforts and dedication to the sport, they will prove to be one of Rochester's outstanding teams for the future. It was an honor to coach these athletes.

Thank You Guys,

Tim Dunham, JV Boys Basketball Coach

Starting with six returning players, one new junior, two new ninth graders, and a coach coming out of retirement it looked like a rebuilding year for the team. Losing two players made it look like the season might not happen, but three eighth graders came to the rescue. Another eighth grader would join us later. Now it looked like even more of a rebuilding year.

A regular season record of 3-12, including three losses by forfeit (lack of players) and one win by way of forfeit shows it was a trying and, at the same time, a satisfying season.

Sarah Allen joined the team as an assistant coach and was a wonderful addition. Two junior players included returning player Devin Bourassa and new player Maria Murray. Four returning sophomores included players Crystal Crete, Mickaela Downs, Jenny Mitchell, and Renee Shaw. Three freshmen were returning players Staci Cutting and new players Brittany Roberts, and Amber Therrien. The three original eighth graders were Nicole Champion, Katelyn Bowen, and Nikita Rhoades. These players were later joined by Dayna Bourassa.

The season started with players fielding many different positions so it could be determined where they were best suited. It was nice to have many players that could be played anywhere and still do well. Hitting was a concern and that turned out to be a problem all year long and hopefully will be better next year. All the players improved greatly in fielding and base running and by the end of the season I was very pleased with everybody's skills in those areas. The new players and the eighth graders improved the most because of their lack of experience at the varsity level. I give these players a tremendous amount of credit for willing to play varsity level softball. They were all put under a lot of pressure but came through it very well. The returning players also improved and adjusted to a new coach very well. The last few games showed everybody that these young ladies could play and be competitive. Next year looks good and I can hardly wait. With improved pitching and players playing set positions the season should start on a positive tone. Hopefully other students will come out and play at the varsity level and we won't have to worry if a couple of players miss a game.

The Middle School Girl's Softball season was a success even though we won only one game against Randolph. We were a young team as we lost several 8th graders to varsity. However, there was a strong core of 7th grade players. This young team was pushed by their coaches to finish 10 games over a short season. They played two double headers and performed superbly. I predict many playoff wins in the future.

Mementos: Michigan, Filming "The Wedding Band," "Ice Breakers," "Town Meeting," Europe with Sonia and Carol, "Chocolate Dipping," "The Perfect Burger," The "Jay Craven Experience" (Hi, I'm Jay Craven and I've been to Sundance...), New Years Eve 2000, All time spent with the girls—Casey, Ashley, Heather, Carrie, Taya, and everyone from both years of A.R.T., Egging Paul D's house on cabbage night 1999, Nova Scotia ("Ohh, ahh, Jeff don't do it!") Uh, Paul, there's no audio..., French with Evan and Cakes, UGRR with Ashley "And what you have to understand..., Night out with Sonia and Colin (and later, Ashley Colin, Ian, and Leo—"oh no...Ashley, I have to tell you something!"), Stirling (and falling) in A.R.T. "Where's the parade now?", Tom Jones, Crow and Weasel ("I will kill!!!!") and really all A.R.T. shows and events, Great escape with Kathleen, Jess, Casey and Krystal, African Dance with Katie B., "Are you hitting on both of us at the same time or what?," Cooking class with Mrs. B., "Add more garlic!," "Cheesecake!," The Chinese food adventure with Cory, Casey and Ashley ("are those guys watching us?!"), Trips to Maine, in particular my 16th birthday trip with Heather Casey and Ashley, Partying with A.R.T. ("what party?"), "James, what's on the lamp?," Jim Carey stalking, "Hey Ross, did you meet René?," VT Young Playwrights, San Francisco with Julie Shannon and the boys from the academy, "Oh, my shoe," "Anger management," Willie and Colby's obscene driving rituals, trying to catch air in the Kia, Late night dinners at Mel's Diner, Filming Mo's movie in the airport ("What the @*## you lookin' at?!"), Bapa, and every other crazy thing about that trip, Martha's Vineyard with Casey, Ashley, and Katie (but we could have done without the TX. Polka...), A.R.T. bonfires ("I don't see any penises!"), Denny's after Prom, Camp Gone-to-the-Dogs ("Hello!"), All nighters in the film studio, Carrie's thong obsession, Ben & Jerry's with the girls, Late night talks on the beach at the pines with Sonia, Ping-pong tournaments, Skinny dipping during the gale ("We're really going to die!"), Cherry picking in July, Playing Fox and Hare with the cottagers, Jug Band music, Riverdance, Natalie McMasters (thanks Cindy and Alan!), watching "Scream" with four extremely jumpy friends, Track (singing it up with Jen, Lily and Heidi), Florida with Megan and George, Living in Bristol, Going to Terry's camp on the lake, Mexico, Waking up in Paris, "Attente! Vous Avez tombé ces!," D-day beaches, the countryside of Normandy and North West France, Monet's gardens and the subway home "est-ce que qu'est un pot plante?! Oui!," Hiking Deerleap every summer with Heather and our traditional box of Twinkies, Row boating in Lake Michigan, Time spent with Leo, Mornings before T.A. "back in the day" with Casey, Ashley, Cory and Anya (ah...coffee...), then lunch with Graham (by the way, rock climbing is still better than telemarketing!), NYC Senior Trip, Yanks game, poetry in the window sill (and everywhere else!), TRL ("You see this dollar? It's ALL YOURS if you let me up!"), Yearbook all summer-ers with Mrs. B. ("Just one more thing, I swear!"), flood of '98, Prom—all of them, but in particular, 1999 and 2001 ("tell me that's not the cummerbund on your head..."), Baccalaureate, Graduation (by the way guys, it's pathetic that we have graduated high school, yet we still can't step in beat!) and all of the other wonderful memories we all keep that can not be conformed to the page of a High School yearbook.

Flicks: Fried Green Tomatoes, A League of their Own, Forest Gump, Dead Poet's Society, Traffic, Go, The Thomas Crown Affair, Saving Private Ryan, Boys Don't Cry, Schindler's List, Le Violon Rouge, and so many more.

Book: The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstien Future Plans: San Francisco, where I will be the Assistant Editor on a Documentary for PBS with When In Doubt Productions. After that, I hope to continue my work in film both in front of and behind the camera. My dream is to make enough money working in this field to comfortable support myself without any other side jobs. An Oscar or two wouldn't hurt. Maybe get married, have a nice little house in the country, own some cats... Advice to Underclassmen (from one who's been there): The odds will often be against you; people will not always be supportive in times of great need; life isn't easy, and if you think it's hard now, wait, it can always get worse; sometimes, you will fall so hard, you can see no reason to stand back up and try again, but the worse you feel, the less support you have, the more odds stacked against you, the greater amazement you will feel when you find the strength from within and bring yourself above it. Look to the power and wisdom you have as a whole being—in mind and body—when you need direction, and utilize the wisdom of the world as a whole when you are afraid. Even when it seems there is nothing left, there is—you.

Quotes: "Make voyages, attempt them, there is nothing else." —Tennessee Williams; "If you're going through Hell, keep going..." —Winston Churchill Will: I, Julia Reed, will the ability to procrastinate and successfully complete most large projects during the five minutes prior to class, to my brother John, who I think I have taught this true art form to well. My way with people to Sonia, may it serve you well in your bright future, my so-far success in manipulating teachers to Colin (You can do it!), my "way with food" to Will Gish—It was all for you! And finally, my coveted spot in A.R.T. to Carrie—make me proud! I love you all. Thank You: Mrs. B. You know I wouldn't be here if not for you. Steve and Candace; for teaching me how to live my passion. Casey; for being there when no one else was. Leo; for teaching me that love does not have to be painful. Julie and Shannon; The open ear, door, heart, mind, and for many years of wisdom bestowed. My family; for the lessons you taught, I know you did what you felt was best. John, Taya, Carrie, Heather, Ashley; My love always.
