"The Road Not Taken"

By Robert Frost, 1915

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth.

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Dedication

The Class of 2007 is pleased to dedicate its yearbook to Principal Mr. Robert A. Gray, Jr.

We started out high school years with new principal, Mr. Robert A. Gray Jr., who retired as we graduated. We're indebted to him for his leadership and for his caring about each of us.

Every year Mr. Gray read us the poem "The Road Not Taken" and throughout the years it has stuck with us, making a difference in the choices we have made and the choices we will make.

It is said that "Many candles can be kindled from one candle without diminishing it."

Mr. Gray has been our candle, lighting the spirit within each of us. He has given this community the light of his own learning and the light of his experiences and has been generous in this giving.

We are very grateful for his inspiration, his guidance, and the light he has shared.

Thank you, "Bob."

Fondest memories:

Christmas mornings with the whole family! 6am: time to get stockings and wait for Dad!

Having the fastest go-cart around and racing with Ashley; Rainy days and muddy afternoons, cover as much as possible. LALA land never Faded and will always exist!?

Kampersville and all the long nights that followed...Trips to the fire pit- or IN the fire pit! Never take your shoes off, moose will steal them... always trust the first instinct of your common sense. Being the baby and daddy's little girl was everything and will always be my role... bad friendships and learned mistakes lead to the future and help prevent new ones. Life is a process of doing not being told how. Snowboarding 04, 05, 07! Missy G, My Seesta and Best Friend, stay strong and focused, I love you and you are going places-remember that always. Ashley, the relationship you have with me can never easily be explained, I love you and wish you the best for anything life throws at you, I'll always be your little sis' allen.

Desiree will always be my bird! Holland and Camron, what are you always so upset about? Always put your self on the line for greatness. Don't follow standards, set them!

Sugarbush 2006: Delo, Quick, you have less than a min, hurry!... Tootaley! Here's to a new year...

Lil' Gabory and Delo in the Geo muddin' and four wheeling... I can't believe you made it through that! Alistair, Here's to being Ali squared, always tearing the edge and living life to the fullest! There's only one AMCW -GM, KM, AW and I playing darts for the first time! Who whooped on whom? JT, traveling and curiosity, thanks...

JSG, everything the past 3 years has consisted of you, honesty and growth will lead us through our new unfolding life together. Obstacles draw us closer, and loyalty keeps us there. Thank you for not giving up and showing me not all people are hurtful. Our physical connection will always remind us how much we care and love each other, but the friendship we have made will keep us on the same level. Mike and Mellissa for being there when we needed you and staying true to us, thanx! My family held me up when I wanted to fall...you made me who I am and will be with me for what I become. Mom, MD, and Zen, you are the little voice in the back of my mind walking me through life. Dad, the greatest in the world and the only person who really understands the true Allison P Brown to the tee, you've always wanted the best for me, letting go is hard, but regretting is harder. Thank you for supporting ME and my decisions. Nana Banana, there's too much to say on this little page for what you mean to me. You have been the most reliable thing in my life, you gave me hope when I needed to see the silver lining under the storm clouds. Remember you are the reason I made it here and I couldn't have been the same person without you.

Harwood Years changed who I am now... mean people and stupid kids grow up to be dumb adults... Trust no one, and keep enemies close. Expect the circle to travel around its path even when you doubt it most. Karma's a beach!

I will to Missy Greenslit the power to see and think for yourself, don't settle for what is good, get what you want! Work is harmless and good for the soul, so soak it up now while you're sane enough... I'm proud of you!

Guest Speaker Coach Tom Brennan

Salutatorian Cullen Haskins

Valedictorian Jennifer Moltz

Community Support Celebrated At Rochester High School

By Martha Slater

In what might be seen as a metaphor for the lives ahead of the graduates, the weather changed from good to bad and back again several times during the next two and a half hours. Following a welcome from Principal Bob Gray, who retires this week, Dr. Valerie Levitan introduced salutatorian Cullen Haskins, and Bob Gray, valedictorian, Jennifer Moltz.

A Pittsfield resident, Haskins, who came to Rochester in seventh grade, spoke about an impressive list of opportunities for educational, artistic, and athletic activities available in the valley. He also noted an equally impressive number of accomplishments in those areas by Rochester Students.

"From my point of view, the Rochester School is more than just an educational institution. It is the duct tape that holds this community together. Coming from a community without a school, I urge you all to consider carefully the part that the Rochester School plays in this community."

Moltz said that her class was "a group that shows great diversity and success; a class full of motivation and ambition." Enumerating the many ways in which they excelled as they followed their interests, Moltz noted that "this community was essential to the development of our passions."

"A student at Rochester school could not ask for a better town or state to live in," she added. "When I started my college search, I looked at schools all over the country, but realized that everything I needed was right here in Vermont. When people say there is nothing to do in Rochester, tell them to look at the Class of 2007 and all they have done with the starting point of Rochester."

Former UVM basketball coach Tom Brennan, who now hosts a radio show and is a sports analysis for ESPN, was the guest speaker. Reacting to the remarks by Haskins and Moltz, he commented, "I can tell this is a special place because both of them talked about what the community had done for them, not what they had done."

Brennan urged the graduates to be givers, saying, "every day, try to fill someone's bucket. Every time you interact with someone, you give them a message." Noting that "I've been lucky in my life," he observed that, "you can change anything you want to, and it all begins with the determination of one person to do it."

Displaying his trademark wit, Brennan advised the graduates to "never lose your sense of humor and understand that life is just not fair. If you can accept that and get up and go on, you'll succeed in life. Some days we're pigeons and some days were statues. Don't ever be afraid to dream...I'm rooting for you!" he concluded.

The graduation also included a heartfelt rendition of "For Good" by seniors Mian O'Dowd, Kirsten Domas, and Jenny Dorman; the administering of the Freeman's Oath, the announcement of a long list of awards, and a tribute to Bob Gray, given by Dr. Valerie Levitan.
