Special Thanks: First, to BJ, ET, HB, and the AA BC Batteries: Without you guys I don't know what I would have done! You are some of the only people who actually were willing to hang out with me and publicly identify yourself as my friend, no matter how much you look on that now with regret... Looking back I can't help but smile just thinking about those wonderful and not so wonderful moments. (Particularly anything pertaining to one act plays, odd snorts, falling down long flights of stairs, buses in general, instigations, and boxer thievery might be some of the lesser appreciated ones) Anyway, I admire you all so very much and I wish you the best in everything that you do. To My Friends at Rochester: My only regret is that I wish I could have been a better friend these past four years. Each and every one of you has made my high school experience the best one a person could wish for. Well, if not the best, at least very interesting. To a selected few (you know who you are) - your humor and friendship mean the world to me.
 Never change! Lastly, To My Family: Thank you so much for you encouragement, especially these last couple of years. Your support and faith in me has been unbelievable. Though I dont always express it Im so very thankful for all that you do and I love you all very much.

Advice to Underclassmen: First and foremost, always do Bret and Goupee homework (no matter how boring either might be). Secondly, always give 100% because hard work really does pay off. Lastly, always remember that if you wake up to a Godfather-like experience on Christmas morning: beware! You're probably on the bad side of a Future Plans: I plan to go to college, have some good times, travel, and hopefully become super rich and famous. And grow an even more awesome beard.

Advice to Underclassmen: I want to give you all a big shpeal on what moral choices you should make, how you should treat your peers, and all that crap, but since this is a high school yearbook, I'll give you academic advice. Don't do what I've done. Honestly. For the love of Gawd and all that is holy, SLEEP (lots!), DO YOUR HOMEWORK, AND DON'T PUT EVERYTHING OFF UNTIL THE LAST MINUTE. This is, in fact, so important that I put it in bold type face. So take my advice. Oh, and as for senior project; if you haven't started yet, youre already waaaaaaay behind. Get crackin'.

Will: I, Doug Kingsbury, being of sound(ish) mind, and sound body (I like to think so, anyway), leave the following stuff to the following folks: To Montana Bowman; my number 11 in any sport he deems fitting to wear it in. To Ethan White; the ability to emasculate all those tall people who pick on your height (I feel you, buddy). To PJ Parrish; a girl who likes good guys. To Liam McKinley, that extra inch of jump that will allow you to dunk. To Dom Smith; I'd will you some sleep if I had any to give. To Daley Crowley; all the foot rubs you could ever want (but not from me). To Jackie Potter; the patience to deal with those people who grind your gears. To Sierra Cruikshank. <scraaaatch>. And of course, to all of the above, my classmates, teachers, and anyone else who I couldn't fit on here because I already have too much freakin' text on here, my eternal love and affection.

Special Thanks: My classmates for putting up with me, my parents for putting up with me, my teachers for putting up with me, and of course my best friends for going out of their way to put up with me. You're all simply fantastic.

Dan New

I'm Dan New. You probably haven't seen very much of me, that's because I go to RTCC. I took 1 year of Automotive Technology, and 1 year of health careers. I am a firefighter for the town of Hancock. Im also taking a EMT-Basic course so I can become an EMT.

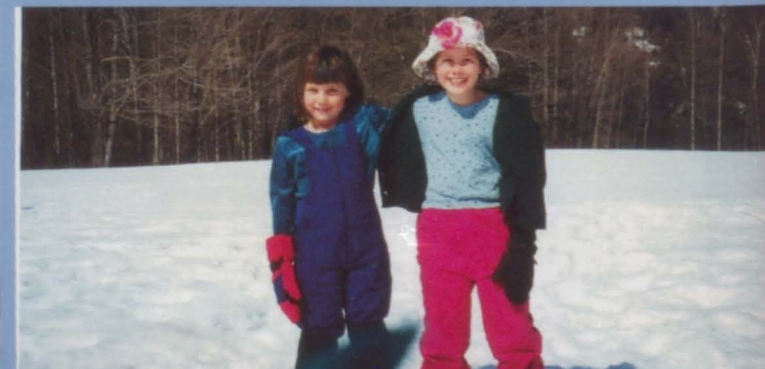

I learned over time, that to be respected, you need to give respect. It's not easy to do, but you can do it.

Special thanks to: Jackie Crawford, and my parents, along with the fire department for the motivation to succeed.

The 2009 Rochester High School Yearbook Staff

Top Row- Harlan Hopkins, George Moltz, Danielle Novotny

Bottom Row- TJ Purdy, Megan Pratt, Megan Harvey, Hannah-Mollie West

I would like to publicly thank Harlan, Danielle, TJ, Hannah-Mollie, Megan, and Megan for their incredible dedication, hard work, creativity, and unfailing good humor in putting together this yearbook. We faced many daunting challenges in the process, but these fine individuals were able to work as an outstanding team to produce a finished product that we are all proud of.

They all volunteered many hours of their free time to complete the yearbook, and were terrific at seeking me out to discuss problems and deadlines as they developed. It was a great experience.

We will be finishing up with a supplemental publication, to complement the contents of this book, that will cover the Italy trip, prom, spring sports, and graduation. Look for it.

We hope that you enjoy the 2009 RHS Yearbook!
