

Rochester School

The 2013 Rochester Yearbook

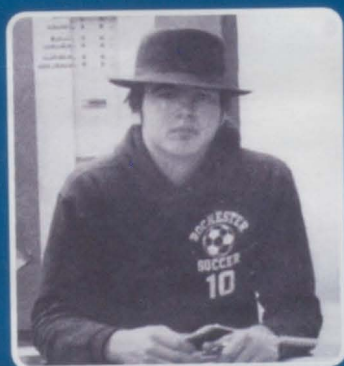

Is dedicated to:

Tim Pratt

Tim Pratt graduated from Rochester High School in 1985. Tim played soccer and baseball in high school. After graduation, he married his high school sweetheart, Wendy (RHS Class of 1986), and they chose to make Rochester their home. Their daughter Lauren graduated in 2011, and their son Tanner will follow in the family tradition in June. Tim has served on the school board, as did his father, Norm, and has been a consistent, enthusiastic RHS sports fan. He also served as a youth baseball coach, and was an assistant coach for the 2004 boys' Division IV State Championship baseball team.

The yearbook staff would like to recognize Tim for his service and support of the school, and in particular the outstanding work he did in rebuilding the baseball / softball fields last spring after Tropical Storm Irene. Tim took fields that really weren't even fields any more, and rebuilt them entirely - new playing surfaces, backstops, dugouts, remeasured dimensions. The work that he didn't do himself, he supervised. Thanks to Tim, the boys were able to play their playoff baseball games at home last June, after playing the entire regular season on the road. In appreciation of his efforts, the 2013 RHS Yearbook is dedicated to Tim Pratt.

A collage of 20 photographs arranged in a grid-like fashion. The photos depict a young woman in various settings: with family (a group of seven people in red shirts), with friends (multiple selfies and group shots), and in her role as a firefighter (in full gear, with colleagues, and at a fire station). Other photos show her in casual settings, like sitting on a dock, wearing a 'CANADA' hoodie, and a close-up of a tattoo that reads 'FTHD'. A Vermont license plate for 'BRANDON FIRE DEPT' is also visible.

I MOVED TO OREGON JULY 23, 2011 AND SPENT A YEAR THERE. I WAS A STUDENT AT TWO HIGH SCHOOLS AND TWO COLLEGES WHILE ATTENDING A FIRE-FIGHTING PROGRAM AT NORTH PLAINS FIRE DEPARTMENT.

We take many steps on our path to greatness, each one leaving a different impression from the last. Each impression holds a different step, a different memory, and an experience in which we have learned from. My years at Rochester have yet to be different from the hypothetical path. I could bore you with countless stories of mischief and the times I've shared with each and every person I've come in contact with, but none of it would really matter. In the end, when we're all grown and gone, what I remember isn't going to effect you in any significant way. It's all going to fall on what you remember of me. I hope that those memories are as pleasant as the ones I have for you. I've had the privilege of being around some of the smartest, most athletic, and creative people; will never forget any of you.

Each of you has effected me in different ways to help shape me into the person I am now. You all stood by me these last two years and helped me through hopefully the roughest period I'll have in my life. All I really want to do is dedicate this page to the people who have effected me. My twelve classmates, my classmates at RTCC and the educators who helped me through. You're all beautiful in your own ways and I want to thank you for being you. I love you all more than you can imagine.

Every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world.

Rochester Rockets - Vermont Division IV State Champions!

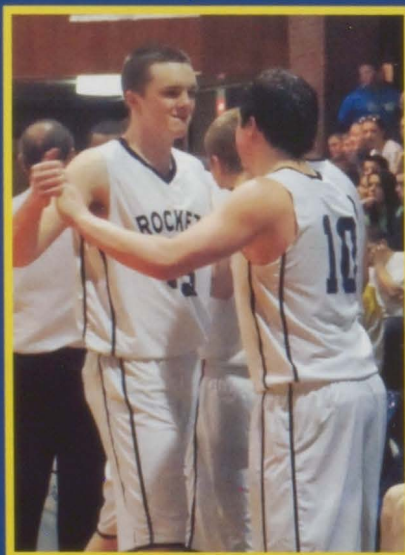

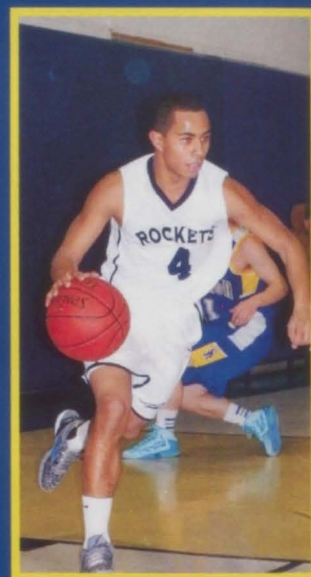

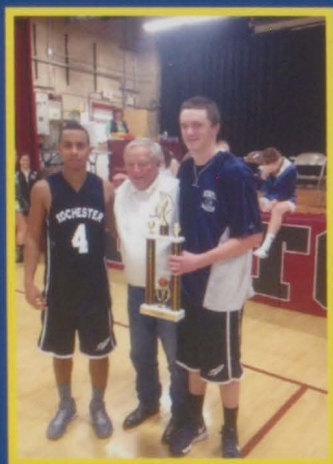

From start to finish, it was a magical season for the Rochester Rockets during the winter of 2012 - 2013.

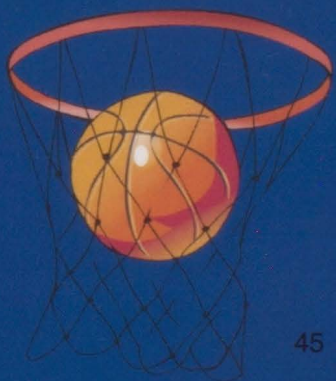

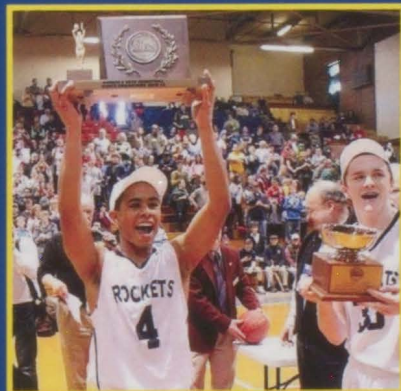

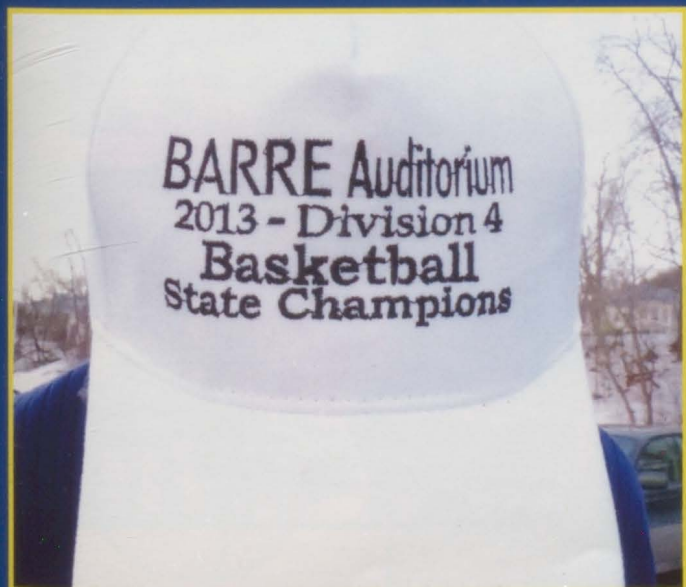

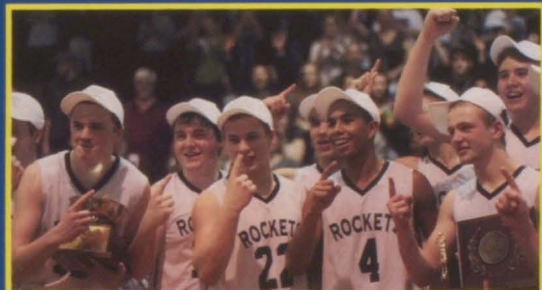

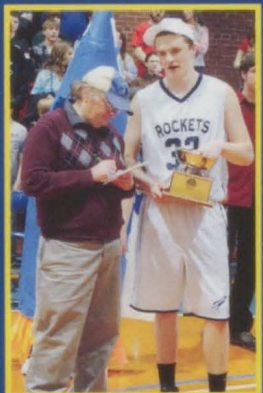

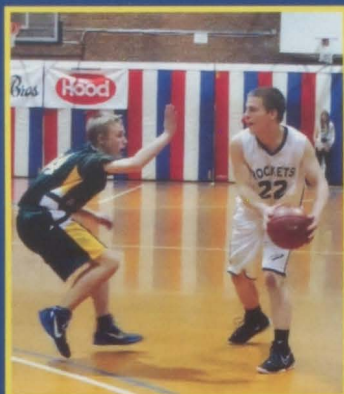

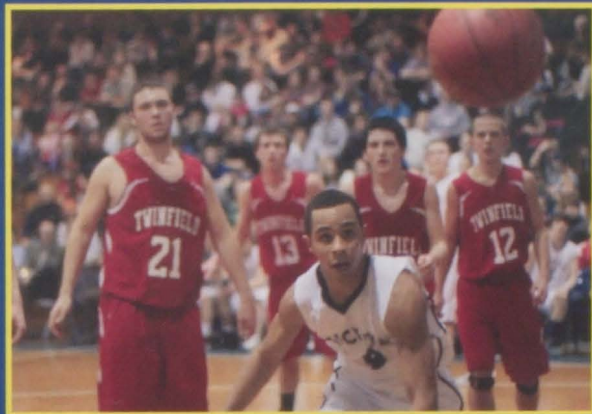

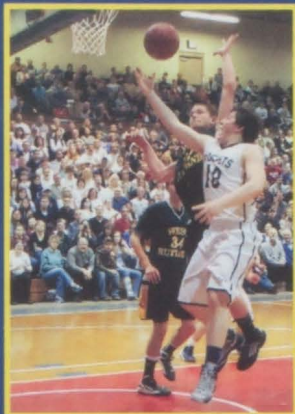

The boys opened the year by winning the Beanpot Game against our rivals from Whitcomb, and then swept to the title in the Bob Abrahamson tournament in Proctor. Throughout the winter, the Rockets were rarely tested, posting an impressive 19-1 record and only falling to the Division III state champions from Williamstown. Led by junior point guard Pavin Parrish, who shattered the school scoring record previously held by Dean Pierce, Rochester's combination of intense defense and explosive offense proved impossible for opponents to surmount.

Earning the # 1 seed in the tournament, the Rockets clobbered Cabot in the playdowns, and eeked out a heart-stopping win over Blue Mt. in the quarterfinals to advance to the Barre Auditorium.

Awaiting Rochester in the semi-finals were the defending state champions from Twinfield, who had given the boys a most competitive game during the regular season. However, Coach Kingsbury's squad was up to the task, pasting the Trojans 77-61 and advancing to the title game against West Rutland. The Golden Horde played a strong first quarter, but then crumbled against the Rockets' relentless attack, and the boys in blue coasted home with an well-earned championship. It was Rochester's first boys' basketball title since 1993.

Congratulations to the players and the coaching staff for making it a memorable season!

Oh, the places you'll go!

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes.

You can steer yourself any direction you choose.

You're on your own. And you know what you know.

And you are the guy (or girl) who'll decide where to go.

In the words of Dr. Seuss we firmly believe "you can steer yourself in any direction you choose."
But we might argue that you are not on you own. The community – and your community hospital – is behind you, supporting you and the good health you'll need to succeed. So step out into the world, make it your own but remember you have the support of home.
