

Rochester School

2016-2017

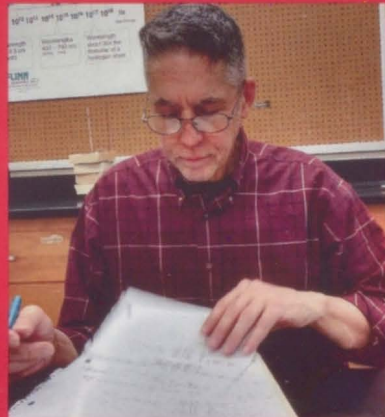

The 2016/2017 Rochester School Yearbook year is dedicated to Christopher C. Bretschneider. Rochester's staff and students will dearly miss this interesting and devoted man. Mr. Bretschneider or "Bret" has a special place in Rochester history as having a teaching style that requires an "aquired taste." In his eyes, everyone is a mathematician and any problem is solvable. Bret is known for getting his students motivated by "bribery," constantly spending hours after school to help students. He'll always help you if you ask enough times, and never turns down a game of chess. Bret's personality is very unique and never fails to entertain. Many of Bret's expressions are forever stuck in our heads. Here are just a few of them:

*It's an aquired taste / Is that a fair statement? / How's this?
laughs ~ Woah / Oh stop, you're smart / Twit / Tweet / YES!
Extend page / Draw a picture / When in doubt, chart it out
Who wants milk? / Stop it, you're being annoying / Are there any cookies left? / Nicely done! / Circular hand motions ~

Bret has an immense vocabulary and is always lighting up the classroom with his wise cracks. We'll miss you Bret!
